

DANA HARRIS SEEGER

Artwork Rental Contract

1.0 TERM

This contract is between Dana Harris Seeger (The Artist) and _____ (The Renter) for the rental of artwork specified in the attached list for a term of _____.

All the artwork is retained as the property of The Artist until the term specified above has been fulfilled or until The Renter has purchased the artwork from The Artist. If at any time during the term of this rental agreement, The Renter wishes to purchase a piece of artwork that is being rented, they may pay the full purchase price, or if they have already been renting it for a time, they can pay the difference between the purchase price and the rent already paid.

2.0 INSURANCE

The Renter takes full responsibility for the care and insurance of the artwork while on display and during this contract term. If any artwork is damaged during the term, The Renter must pay to purchase the artwork for the purchase price (or the difference of the purchase price and whatever has been paid thus far in rent.)

3.0 INSTALLATION

The Artist will not be responsible for installing the work, unless The Renter and The Artist have agreed The Artist will install for an installation fee of $200.

4.0 PAYMENT

The Renter will pay The Artist the monthly rental fee up front at the start of each month for the total amount of pieces being rented. The Renter may choose to purchase one or more pieces while continuing to rent other pieces. If The Renter purchases any pieces outright, the rental contract upon the purchased pieces will cease. If a piece is sold during the rental contract, whether at the rental location or through the artist via another platform, the rental agreement will terminate for that piece and will be removed at the end of month. In the case of any sale, a new rental contract will be drawn up, a receipt for purchased artwork will be given to The Renter by The Artist, and the parties will sign a new rental agreement with the rental art pieces.

5.0 PRICES

The prices listed below are MONTHLY rental prices per size of artwork next to the PURCHASE price. This includes painting, prints and any other 2 dimensional work whether framed or unframed, lighted or not.
